dolor pectoris, tempore jucundo.

Terra vernat floribus & nemus virore,
Aves mulcent cantibus & vocis dulcore,
Aqua tempeſtatibus caret, aër imbribus,
Dulci plenus rore.
Sol conſumtis nubibus, radijs patentibus
Lucet cum dulcore.
O quàm mira gloria, quantus decor Dei,
Quanta reſplendent ſuæ faciei,
A quo ducunt omnia, ima, ſumma, media,
Formam ſpeciei

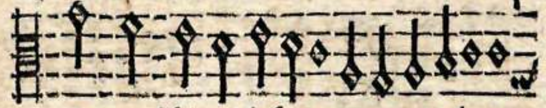
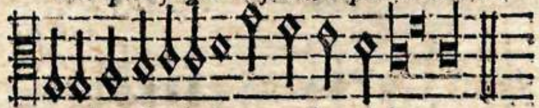
Tempus adeſt floridum, ſurgũt namq; flores,
Vernales in omnibus, imitantur mores,


Hoc quod frigus læſerat, reparant calores,



cernimus hoc fieri per multos labo- res.

Sunt prata plena floribus, jucunda aſpectu,
Ubi juvat cernere herbas cum delectu,
Gramina & plantæ hyeme quieſcunt,
Vernali in tempore virent & accreſcunt.
Hæc vobis pulchrè monſtrant Deum Creatorem,
Quem quoque nos credimus omnium factorem,
O tempus ergo hilare, quo lætari libet,
Renovato nam mundo, nos novari decet.
Terra ornatur floribus & multo decore,
Nos honeſtis moribus & vero amore,
Gaudeamus igitur tempore jucundo,
Laudemusq; Dominum pectoris ex fundo.

2.

Dum preſſuris, ac ærumnis ſe gemit obnoxiam,
Quam emiſit, cum deliquit, contemplatur gloriam,
Præſens malum auget boni perditi memoriam.

3.

Nam quis promat ſummæ pacis quanta ſit lætitia,
Ubi vivis margaritis ſurgunt ædificia:
Auro celſa micant tecta, radiant triclinia.

4.

Solis gemmis precioſis hæc ſtructura nectitur,
Auro mundo tanquam vitro urbis via ſternitur,
Abeſt limus, deeſt fimus, lues nulla cernitur.

5.

Flos perpetuus roſarum, ver agit perpetuum,
Candent lilia, rubeſcit Crocus, ſudat balſamum,
Pigmentorum ſpirat odor, liquor & aromatum.

Hyems horrens, æſtas torrens, illic nunquam ſæviunt,
Virent prata, vernant ſata, rivi mellis influunt,
Quod cives beati ſemper, atq; ſemper appetunt.

7.

Pigmentorum ſpirat odor, liquor & aromatum,
Pendent poma floridorum non lapſura nemorum,
Non alternat Luna vices, Sol vel curſus ſyderum.

8.

Agnus eſt fælicis urbis lumen inoccidum,
Nox & tempus deſunt ei, diem fert continuum,
Mera lux eſt, nulla crux eſt; gaudiũ eſt perpe-
tuum.

9.

Nam & ſancti quiq;, velut Sol præclarus, rutilant,
Poſt triumphum coronati mutuò conjubilant,
Et proſtrati pugnas hoſtis jam ſecuri numerant.

10.

Omni labe defæcati carnis bella neſciunt,
Caro facta ſpiritalis, & mens unum ſentiunt,
Pace multa per fruentes ſcandala non perferunt.

11.

Mutabilibus exuti repetant originem,
Et præſentem veritatis contemplantur ſpeciem,
Hinc vitalem vivi fontis hauriunt dulcedinem.

12.

Inde ſunt omnes ab omnibus beati partibus,
Clari, vividi, jocundi, nullis patent caſibus,
Abſunt morbi ſemper ſanis, ſenectus juvenibus.

13.

Hinc perenne tenent eſſe, nam tranſire tranſijt,
Inde virent, vigent, florent, corruptela corruit
Immortalitatis vigor mortis jus abſorbuit.

Cuncta

14.

Cuncta poſſunt, cuncta ſciunt, nã ſciunt omniſcium,
Et cunctis Cœleſte confertur ex æquo gaudium.
Unum volunt, unum nolunt, unitas eſt mentium.

15.

Dan: 12. Licet cuîq; ſit diverſum pro labore meritum;
Charitas hoc ſuum facit, dum hic amat alterum,
Proprium ſic ſingulorum ſit commune omnium.

16.

Ubi corpus, illic jure congregantur aquilæ,
Quo cum Angelis & ſanctæ recreentur animæ.
Uno pane vivunt cives utriusq; patriæ.

17.

Avidi & ſemper pleni, quod habent, deſiderant,
Inhiantes ſemper edunt, & edentes inhiant,
Non ſatietas faſtidiens, famesvè cruciant.

18.

Novas ſemper harmonias vox crepat dulciſona,
Et in jubilum prolata mulcent aures organa,
Digna, per quem ſunt victores regi dant præconia.

19.

Fœlix Cœli quæ præſentem regem cernit anima,
Et ſub altâ ſede volvi ſpectat infima
Solem, lunam, & globoſa, cum planetis, ſydera.

20.

Chriſte, palma bellatorum hoc in municipium
Introduc nos poſt ſolutum militare cingulum
Fac conſortes Donativi beatorum civium. Amen.
